

A galactic problem

Last year a group of teenagers were invited by Nasa to study Neptune. Emily was calm because she knew a lot about space, Tom was extremely terrified, Chloe was excited and Joshua was worried. "Don't worry everyone i know a lot about space, Emily explained. Chloe imagined herself in the rocket at everything Since Emily knew a lot about space she told everyone what to expect which made made Tom and Joshua a little bit calmer.

The countdown echoed through the rocket, "This is so exciting!" Emily shouted as the spaceship went to space. As soon as they were in space, Chloe pressed her face against the cold glass, "I can't believe it, my dream about going to space finally came true," Chloe yelled. Joshua shivered as he looked out the window. Worried, he asked " Chloe since you don't have a good view out your window want to look with me?" "Sure," Chloe screeched. As they looked out the window they could see: planets, stars and comets that were as bright as the sun. Gripping his seat he cried "I'm so scared," Last year, a group of teenagers were invited by Nasa to study Neptune. Emily was very calm because she knew a lot about space, Tom was extremely terrified, Chloe was excited and Joshua was worried. "Don't worry everyone, I know alot about space," Emily explained. Chloe imagined herself in the rocket looking at everything! Since Emily knew what to expect she told everyone everything she knew about space, which made Tom and Joshua a little bit calmer.

"I can't believe we're in space, best day ever!" Emily screamed.

After what felt like a day, a massive meteor, flying through space smashed the window which meant they were losing oxygen! “AHHHHHHH” the group panicked as they put their spacesuits on. While the group were panicking, Tom was trying to calm down by meditating “Tom now is not the time to meditate!” Emily told him “I know but I'm trying to calm down,” Tom moaned. “ This is a disaster so be helpful and go help the rest of the group!” Emily shouted “Fine,” Tom grunted”. As Joshua was helping Chloe, he cried “I want my mummy!” “ I know you want your mum but carry on helping me find something to fix this,”. Will they survive this galactic problem?

In the panic room Chloe found a box that said - warning glass. “Guys I've found the solution” Chloe screamed,”. Luckily the box came with instructions that said Fixing glass for weirdos. “ “This is it!” Joshua yelled, his voice filled with hope as the group started to fix the window. “We can do this!” Emily cheered. Because they never gave up, they were nearly done. “We're nearly done, let's keep going!” Tom shouted with his voice filled with joy. The crack in the glass was gone and the window was fixed. Meanwhile, Joshua was curled up in the corner as he cried out loud too scared to celebrate with the others. His cries echoed through the rocket “I want to go home and I want my mummy!”. They finally did it, they fixed the window and the group celebrated but Joshua was still crying like a baby. Will they reach home safely?
