

A weird space mission

Earlier this week, A group of daredevil teenagers decided to enter a competition and won it! Because of this they were invited to go on a space mission to study the fantastic galaxy Andromeda ( that is far far away.) Kyle, who is 12 years old, was overwhelmed and confused about why they won out of millions of people. Micheal , who is seventeen, loves space and can't wait to study the fascinating galaxy Andromeda which is soooo far away. Alaya , who is fourteen

As the countdown started the excitement was building up by the minute and you could tell how confident Micheal and Kyle were. As the countdown hit zero they shot up into the air.

“Look, we have just passed Jupiter. I can't wait to see Andromeda!” Kyle said excitedly. Alaya on the other hand was hugging herself! “ What if we crash? I don't want to be on this silly mission anymore! I miss my mum!”

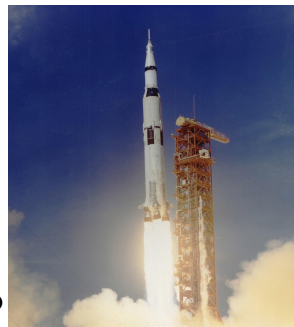

“Alaya you will be fine, stop crying like a baby and look!” Micheal added.

“ But I don't want to look, I am terrified!” she said her voice was as shaky as a plane. “Fine, suit yourself but I will never invite you on any mission ever again!” Micheal shouted Unexpectedly,they heard a weird noise. “I wonder what that was. It sounded creepy!” Alaya cried. “Yeah I'm not going to lie, that was a really weird sound.”Michael replied “ I will go have a look and see what that was i will be back in one minute” Kyle explained. When he got to the front of the ship, He could not believe what he was looking at! He gasped, it was the front windscreen that was smashed into millions of pieces by a massive meteor that must have struck early hours of that morning. Kyle ran back, his heart beating as fast as a drum, he returned. “What happened to the ship?” Michael whispered so quietly that Alaya would not hear him . “Kyle, Kyle KYLE what happened? Are we going to die?? Alaya asked.”The front windscreen has been smashed into pieces by a massive meteor!” All three of them screamed...

With no time to waste, Michael shot up out of his seat and shouted “I will go, and find a solution to this disaster!” with his voice as shaky as an earthquake, he searched across the floor desperate for a solution. Under the stairs that connect the first floor to the second floor, he found a box saying “fragile handle with care” he found a new windscreen. luckily it came with instructions “ fixing windscreen for babies “ here it is i found the solution! I need to go take it back to the main floor but it is heavy!” without thinking, he pulled it across the floor. “ Guys, look i need your help i found the solution but i need to fit it in please help” so they fixed it in the windscreen but will they complete this mission?
