Term: Spring 1		Topic: PSHE
Key Skills and Knowledge:
Changing me
<ul style="list-style-type: none">I can understand that in animals and humans lots of changes happen between birth and growing up, and that usually it is the female who has the baby.I can express how I feel when I see babies or baby animals.I can identify the parts of the body that make boys different to girls and can use the correct names for these: penis, testicles, vagina, vulva,anus.I respect my body and understand which parts are private.I know some simple ways of keeping clean which can keep me healthy and protect me from some infections.		<ul style="list-style-type: none">I have started to think about the ways to keep my body clean as I grow up and how I feel about thisI can start to recognise stereotypical ideas I might have about parenting and family roles.I can express how I feel when my ideas are challenged and might be willing to change my ideas sometimes.Identify what I am looking forward to when I move to my next class.Start to think about changes I will make next year and know how to go about this.
Reading and Writing Opportunities (Long and Short Activities)
Creative Ideas and Hooks
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Draw a picture of a baby, child and adult. Write a short description of the changes that occur.Sort body parts as to those that are male or female.Play a game to identify ways we keep clean. Use glitter to show how germs spread.		<ul style="list-style-type: none">Girls design a duvet cover for boys and boys design a duvet cover for girls. Display and discuss if stereotypical. Is it fair?Create a mobile with things they are looking forward to about growing up/ worried about.
