FRIDAY 22ND MAY 2026

A Message from Mr Haworth

This week, we welcomed our children back for the final half term of the school year. It's going to be a busy one! With so much packed into the weeks ahead, I think the children may need the summer holidays to recover—and perhaps the staff will too!

Dance Festival - 2026

The classes are busy practicing a variety of dances for our very popular annual Dance Festival. This is always a well supported and enjoyable event. We just need to weather to be on our side for it to go ahead as planned on the 19th June!

Entry is 50p per person which is payable on the gate when you arrive.

This is open to all the family so bring along aunts, uncles, cousins and let's make it as successful as it has been in previous years. It's my first dance festival and the staff keep telling me I have to perform a solo?
